ABOUT THE EVENT

NASHIA

- The State of the States Conference (SOS) began in 1990 as a way to bring state leaders together.
- 2024's SOS will be the 35th consecutive year that NASHIA has hosted the conference.
- SOS continues to bring state leaders together, alongside brain injury advocacy organizations, partners, researchers, and providers.
- This year's conference will highlight work in the criminal legal system as a content track, as well as bring content applicable to the whole brain injury community.
- The preconference will focus on home and community based approaches.

SPONSOR PACKAGES

Track Sponsorship Package $25,000

SOS 2024 will feature a track of content dedicated to the Criminal Legal System and Brain Injury. Existing resources and tools will be shared. Presenters representing all aspects of the system will discuss challenges and areas for intervention of best practice approaches for brain injury. Examples of training, screening, and collaboration will be reviewed, and various criminal legal providers will be represented in presentations. States and partners can learn from successful models and take home examples to apply to their work.

- Recognition as the track-related content sponsor
- Opportunity to provide consultation and insight during the event planning process
- Participation in a conference session
- Inclusion on major event signage
- Recognition in pre- and post-event material such as social media, website, and emails
- Organization spotlight in a pre-event email to 5,000 recipients
- Brand recognition as a sponsor in the event app with a full page ad
- One exhibit table in the exhibit hall
- Six complimentary registrations

Pre-Conference Sponsorship Package $20,000

The pre-conference for 2024 will be focused on Home & Community Based Services and Brain Injury Best Practices. National Subject Matter Experts will discuss existing services and potential areas for supports that states can explore, as well as provide guidance on procedures and processes. Resources for technical assistance and support will be identified. States and partners will share current practices and supports, and plan for future expansion of the types and extent of services as well as additional funding sources and potential providers.

- Recognition as the pre-conference content sponsor
- Opportunity to provide consultation and insight during the event planning process
- Participation in a conference session
